

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

III B. Tech Industry Oriented Mini Project, A.Y:2024-25

ABSTRACT FORM

Batch Number: A4

Title of the Project: "Diksuche" -Choose the right path for your career.

Name of the Guide: Mr. S K Lokesh Naik

Sl. No.	Roll Number	Name of the Student
01	22R21A0518	DABBU HARSHINI
02	22R21A0513	BODDULA TEJAS
03	22R21A0522	EDLAKADI SOWMYA
04	22R21A0534	LAKAVATH DILIP

Area/Domain of Project :	Education Technology
PROBLEM STATEMENT
Developing effective career counseling guide in schools & colleges is crucial to helping students make informed career choices. These programs will offer personalized support, provide access to diverse career information, foster self-awareness, and include real-world experiences by choosing the path. By integrating career exploration with academic guidance, the students can better align their schooling, their skills and interests with future opportunities, leading to more confident career decisions.
ABSTRACT
As the job market evolves, schools and colleges must offer effective career counseling and guidance to help students make informed career decisions. This platform will provide personalized support, introducing students to diverse career options while fostering self-awareness by helping them understand their strengths, interests, and aspirations. By integrating career exploration with academic guidance, students can make meaningful connections between their education and potential career paths.
Effective career counseling should begin early, showing students that education is a pathway to success. Providing access to updated career information—such as job market trends, salary expectations, and required skills—empowers students to make informed choices. Personalized assessments and consultations help students understand their strengths, skills, and values, ensuring they pursue careers aligned with their interests. Incorporating real-world experiences like internships, mentorships, and career fairs is essential. These opportunities offer practical insights into various professions, allowing students to grasp the realities of different careers. Career counseling must be an ongoing process, adapting to the changing job market and mentorships, and career fairs is essential. These opportunities offer practical insights into various professions, allowing students to grasp the realities of different careers. Career counseling must be an ongoing process, adapting to the changing job market and students' evolving needs.

By focusing on transferable skills like communication, teamwork, and problem-solving, career counseling programs equip students with tools to succeed in any field. Overall, integrating career exploration with academic support helps students make confident, informed decisions, leading to fulfilling, successful careers. Schools and colleges play a crucial role in preparing students for the workforce and ensuring they make the right career choices.

OBJECTIVES

- Facilitate Career Exploration: Expose students to diverse career options and industry trends, connecting academics to future careers.
- Integrate Career & Academic Guidance: Align academic learning with career development to show how education supports career goals.
- Adapt Programs: Continuously update guidance to reflect industry shifts & student aspirations.
- Promote Informed Decision-Making: Empower students to make confident, well-informed career choices for greater future success..

REFERENCES

1. M. Smith and L. Johnson, "Career Guidance and Counseling for School Students," Journal of Education and Practice, vol. 10, no. 12, pp. 58-64, 2019.
2. National Career Development Association, "Career Counseling Resources," [Online]. Available: <https://www.ncda.org>. [Accessed: Feb. 10, 2025].
3. National Center for Education Statistics, "Career Counseling in Schools: A Report," 2018. [Online]. Available: <https://nces.ed.gov/reports/career-counseling>. [Accessed: Feb. 10, 2025].
4. R. Thomas, "Career Guidance in Schools: The Missing Link," The Guardian, Jan. 15, 2020. [Online]. Available: <https://www.theguardian.com/career-guidance-schools>.

Project Guide

Class Project Coordinator

Project Coordinator